MRS. COOK'S FUNERAL.
She Now Sleeps in the Quiet Cemetery at Guilford College.

Starting from the residence near the Normal College shortly after twelve o'clock yesterday, the remains of Mrs. Jno. W. Cook were followed to their last resting place by a large concourse of relatives and friends.

The funeral services were conducted in Friends Church at Guilford College by Rev. Dr. J. C. Rose, of West Market street church. The ceremony was beautiful and impressive. "Asleep in Jesus" was sung in subdued tones, sweetly led by Miss Carrie Smith. Scripture lessons were read by Dr. Rose, after which he made some beautiful and appropriate remarks about the life and character of the good woman, and emphasized in a most consoling manner the idea that she was not dead, but asleep.

Dr. Rose was followed by Rev. A. G. Kirkman, who had known the deceased for many years, and he paid a handsome tribute to her precious memory. A few remarks were made by Messrs. Peeler and Jones, after which "God Be With You" was sung and the large congregation gave a last lingering look at the beloved face of the dead.

In the quiet churchyard hard by, loving hands placed the sacred form in the earth beneath a bower of lovely autumn flowers, there to sleep until the final summons from above shall call her back and the mortal shall put on immortality.

SHIPPING TRAFFIC.

The freight traffic on the main line of the Southern Railway is now heavy that crews from the western North Carolina division have been transferred temporarily to the main line to help handle the trains. The depot force in Concord has never been so busy as at present—Concord Standard.

BOERS FOUGHT LIKE DEMONS
The Fight With the Gordon Highlanders Last Friday.

FREQUENT SORTIES LAST WEEK

Explained—The Boers Were Pressing too Close—Tale of a Hotel Man from Ladysmith.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Cape Town, Nov. 9.—The Boers fought like demons Friday. The Gordon Highlanders lost heavily, but the loss of the Boers was awful. The wounded presented a frightful appearance, many of them with their noses and eyes missing as a result of the bayonet and sabre charges and hand-to-hand fighting.

BOMBARDMENT CEASED

London, Nov. 9—White reports that the pigeon bombardment ceased Saturday. Sunday it was expected to be resumed on Monday. It is feared that White would run out of ammunition for the big naval guns. Nothing is said as to the working of their guns.

Army officers believe this explains the frequent sorties of the past week. Evaders feel greatly encouraged, and say the prospects are very bright.

The judges inspected the various exhibits today and decided on the prize-winners. Owing to lack of space the list cannot be published today, but will appear in this paper tomorrow.

The judges are as follows: On officers—Mrs. J. Sterling Jones, Mrs. Walter Brooks, Miss Annie Pleasant, Mr. J. Van Lindley, and Mr. Thomas Brown. On fancy work—Mrs. Clarence R. Brown, Mrs. John A. Barringer, Mrs. Will Allen, Mrs. Mamie Crawford, and Mrs. John Dodson.

General admission is 10 cents; senior tickets 25 cents, children 5 cents.

The show will be continued tomorrow.

We feel sure the managers will receive the liberal patronage of the good people of Greensboro, and we bespeak for them the encouragement that their cause so richly deserves.

ROCKINGHAM COURT.

ILLARD BOWMAN, Colored, Must Hang on January 26, 1900

Judge Thomas J. Shaw and Solicitor M. L. Mott came in last night from Wentworth, where they have been holding Rockingham court, which closed yesterday. Solicitor Mott left this morning for his home at Wilkesboro.

There were six capital cases on the criminal docket, and five were disposed of, of the one against Sam Carter, colored, for criminal assault.

Private advices from Blackburn are encouraging to the democrats, for they say that Goebel carried the state by 4,000. It will take the official count to decide the result. Already many contests are in sight.

ILLARD BOWMAN, colored, was convicted of raping a little 11-year-old white girl at Leaksville about three months ago, and sentenced to be hanged at Wentworth January 26, 1900. No appeal was taken. C. O. McMichael, of Madison, represented the defendant, and Solicitor Mott prosecuted.

Ed Johnson, colored, for killing Hence Thomas, at Reidsville, was given seventeen months on the county roads, the charge being manslaughter.

William James, colored, was acquitted of breaking into Slaughter's restaurant at Reidsville.

The jury rendered a verdict of murder in the second degree in the case against Ass Flynn, and he was given a life sentence.

Sam Allison got two years on the county roads, the prosecution agreeing to a charge of assault with deadly weapon upon a man named Shorty.

Trouble Among the Strikers Feared.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 8—Word reaches here from Ducktown, Monroe county, that serious trouble is brewing there between the miners and operators of the Ducktown Sulphur, Copper and Iron Company. Six hundred miners are out on a strike and the company has arranged to put men in their places, today. The miners are armed and guarding the mines and refuse to allow the new men to enter. The strikers have secured a lot of whisky and are becoming boisterous. The operators have one hundred deputies guarding the property and are employing all who will serve. The company officials say they will put the new men to work and the miners say no scabs shall replace them.

CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW

Opened This Morning and the Hall is a Bower of Beauty.

A bewildering display of bright bloom and brilliant foliage marked the opening of the annual chrysanthemum show this morning in the Odd Fellows' hall, on West Market street.

The handsome hall has been filled with an artistically-arranged exhibit of exceptional beauty, the entire second floor of the building being utilized for the various displays. The entrance hall and side corridors have been devoted to a splendid exhibit of foliage plants. The hall has been converted into a veritable fairyland by the decorators' skill and the beauty of the floral display. Gorgeous orchids alternate with pyramids of chrysanthemums, and displays of geraniums and other plants give variety to the show. This year's display is remarkable for the interesting individual plants which have been produced.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Now that the elections have passed, President McKinley will in a few days begin to consider the subject matter for his annual message to congress. He will not begin the actual writing of the message probably until about Thanksgiving day, but he will before that time begin to gather the material which will be included in it. Already the members of the cabinet are busy preparing their own messages which are submitted to the president in advance of the assembling of congress, and which they desire to be incorporated in the document.

Of course it is impossible to forecast with any degree of accuracy the subjects of which the president will treat, but undoubtedly the situation in the Philippines will be the one subject which will attract the greatest interest.

At the white house it was stated the other day that the result of the elections, however they might turn out, would not be the slightest change in the present policy of the administration.

Now that the republicans have carried Ohio by an increased majority and made large gains in the interior of New York state, besides scattering gains in the West, and have held their own elsewhere, excepting in Maryland and Nebraska, the president is likely to feel that his policy, if it has not gained anything for his party, has not at least been openly rebuked, and to feel that it indicates that the people are determined that his policy in conducting the war in the Philippines shall have a fair trial.

So he is now more than likely to adhere to the course he has mapped out, dealing with the problem which confronts him in the management of the Philippines among those in a position to know the president's views is that he will recommend the territorial form of government for the islands, and will also recommend certain legislation, such as the extension of the public land laws,

the prevention of Chinese immigration, etc., as may be necessary.

There will be many subjects treated in the message of importance to the south. It is expected that he will urge upon congress the immediate necessity of legislation regarding the Nicaragua canal, and the continuation of the work begun under the authority of the last congress. It is also likely that the president will be urged by southern people to incorporate in the message this year his recommendations of the last two documents relating to the organization of a ba-acteriological commission to examine the prevention of yellow fever in the Southern states. This subject just now

AMERICA IN THE EAST.

The information comes from Washington that as soon as Aguinaldo shall have been captured, and hanged probably, and the Filipinos well curbed and throttled for their insolent aspirations for freedom, the McKinley administration is going to cast off all restraint and enter the meshes of eastern affairs in earnest, supporting and supported by—Great Britain. It is well known that McKinley has no regard for the spirit of our declaration of independence, and he is possessed of a defiance bordering on contempt for the Monroe doctrine. These principles and precedents are antiquated, old-fashioned, out-of-date, and entirely unsuited and inadequate to the needs and the glory of the "new" America. Doubtless before many moons an American fleet will silently weigh anchor under orders from Washington and steam out to sea, and after a few days suddenly appear in the Mediterranean in conjunction with the queen's ships in some scheme of bluff or grab that will startle the world. Such an occurrence would be no more surprising nor a greater innovation in our annals than the present policy of conquest in the Philippines.

Along this line the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Record has some intelligence in yesterday's issue of that paper which hints of the deep interest the administration is taking in the eastern matters, and which gives color to the reports of the hand the president is holding. We extract the following from the dispatch:

"The assurances in writing which the United States has requested from the great powers [in regard to the gobbling up of China] and which are expected to be eventually forthcoming, though declared unnecessary, would, of course, amount to no more than the verbal assurances, if it were not known that they could not be disregarded with impunity. * * * In a sense, it does not matter to the United States whether any further assurances are given in writing or otherwise, for the administration has really accomplished its purpose in letting the powers know that the United States proposes to insist upon its rights. * * * The powers understand that the United States is in earnest and that it will be supported by Great Britain and Japan. * * * They know that China has been assured that the United States will not take part in the partition of its empire, but will support it in order to maintain the rights now secured to us by treaty. * * * The most interesting thing in the outgoings of the Russian ambassador today was the evident desire of the Russian government to keep the friendship of the American government, which is now courted by all European powers."

The Record's correspondent believes that the United States will not take part in the partition of the Chinese empire, but will only insist upon the "open door," etc. We trust he is right. But though such a move on the part of our government would be a cause for indignation and horror all over this land, there would be little surprise anywhere, we think. China is no further from San Francisco than the Philippines, and it would be no greater sin to kill the Chinese and take from them their lands, than to pursue the high-handed pillage, robbery and murder Oitis is engaged in at present.

As long as McKinley and his chief adviser, Mark Hanna, rule the American government, the people may be prepared for any sort of move.

A dispatch giving an account of the battle of Nicholson's Neck, says:

"General Joubert was in supreme command. The Britishers advanced in the darkness on the republican forces, on the right of the hill, formed by the Free Staters, commanded by General Cronje. A stampede of their troops threw the whole force into disorder."

We clip this to get the benefit of the last sentence. The mule do seem to be a controlling factor in the South African war.

There seems to be a slight diversity of opinion existing between Mr. Goebel and Mr. Taylor—a difference of about 12,000 votes.

In the Samoan gobble the American slice isn't bad—the Island of Tutuila and the subsidiary islands.

Kentucky, at her future elections, will doubtless establish a censorship

REPUBLICAN GAINS.

New York, Nov. 8.—Taking the highest candidate for county office on each ticket in all the counties, the republican pluralities in New Jersey is well above 20,000. Taking what local political leaders consider a fair average in each county, the republican pluralities is about 16,000. A year ago the republican plurality in the state, calculated in the same manner was 8,400. In the same year Voorhees, republican, for governor, had 5,499 plurality.

DEMOCRATIC SWEEP.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 8.—Correct semi-official returns show that the democrats made almost a clean sweep in the municipal election held here yesterday. The republicans succeeded but in seven cases on the entire ticket. They elected the sheriff, auditor, tax commissioner, county clerk and three supervisors. The democrats elected the mayor and all other county officers, except the supervisors. Mayor Phelan's plurality over Davis, rep., is 7,756.

REPUBLICANS ELECT JUDGE.

Aberdeen, S. D., Nov. 8.—More complete returns from the state at large confirm last night's estimate of a republican majority of seven to ten thousand for supreme court judge.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 8.—Senator Goebel arrived here at 8 o'clock tonight and was met at the train by a crowd of 1,500 enthusiastic followers. From the balcony of the Capitol Hotel where his headquarters is located, Mr. Goebel made a speech in which he said:

"I believe I have been elected—in fact I know I have. I see my friend General Taylor says he will assume the office of governor. All I have to say is if I have been elected, as I believe, I will be inaugurated in spite of the Louisville and Nashville railroad and Bradley's bayonets."

Ex-Senator Joseph Blackburn also spoke, claiming Goebel's election by a slender majority and calling on the people to see to it that he is seated.

KENTUCKY GOES REPUBLICAN

Yet Mr. Goebel Declares He is Elected.

THE RETURNS ARE VERY SLOW.

May be a Day or Two Before All are in—Nash Wins in Ohio by Over Forty-nine Thousand.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 8.—The returns have been received by the Western Union from all counties in Ohio, with a few scattering precincts estimated. The footings give Nash (rep.) for governor, a plurality of 49,000. The reports in most cases give only the pluralities, and hence it has not been possible to give the total vote of the candidates. The Jones vote, however, has been reported from 47 counties, including Cuyahoga, Lucas, Hamilton and Summit, where the largest vote for him was cast. It shows a total in 47 counties of $2,787.

Nothing has been received by the Western Union to change its estimate made early in the day of the plurality for Taylor, republican, for governor of Kentucky. Advice from unreported precincts are coming in slowly, and it may be a day or two before all are received.

RETURNS FAVOR TAYLOR.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—With only three counties in the state to be heard from, the vote of Taylor, republican, for governor, is 121,133; Goebel, democrat, 112,206, and Brown, independent democrat, 7,301.

The republicans carried everything in Louisville and claim the legislature by seven majority. This will give them the United States senator.

In almost every county the Republicans made big gains, and in some instances former democrat counties by good majorities went republican.

The second best collection by boy or girl; prize, basket of fruit. Valie Smith.

The handsomest ostrich-plume; prize, jardiner, Oscar Kearns. Mrs. C. Barker.

The best collection of begonias; prize, handsome rug, W. C. Jones. Mrs. J. S. Campbell.

The best collection of house plants; prize, bowl and pitcher, J. R. Holt. Mrs. J. S. Campbell.

THE REVIVAL.
Still in Progress at First Presbyterian Church.

Reported for The Telegram.
There were two services at the First Presbyterian church yesterday, conducted by Dr. S. M. Smith. In his sermon last night he enlarged upon the last point of his sermon the night before, "Accept Christ immediately." His text was I Kings, 18:21, "And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long hath you between two opinions? If the Lord be God follow him; but if Baal, then follow him."

It is unwise to hesitate. It is not the part of either a wise or a strong man. When there is doubt about a master, go slow, but when your reason and conscience tell you to do a thing, then do it. You haven't any doubt about the right in this matter, then why not decide now? The sooner you decide the easier it will be. It is useless to hesitate. Your own experience tells you that. This matter has been presented to you before for decision. Very few decide the first time. It is presented. God's Providence and blessed Spirits have often urged you to decide for him. It wasn't easy to decide then. Is it any easier tonight? It becomes harder every time you postpone it. You all intend to attend to it some day, but remember you are getting farther and farther away from God. Habits prised in do not become easier to break.

It's a sinful course to hesitate. Your opportunity to accept Christ is not simply a privilege, it is also the most sacred obligation, and every time you put this master off, you commit a most heinous sin. A man may be a liar, a thief or a murderer and yet be saved, but one who persists in rejecting Christ can never be saved.

Hesitation is also a dangerous course. First, because life is uncertain, and second, because you have no guarantee of future life. The master is not entirely in your hands for settlement, but you are dependent upon God and his gracious spirit. And God says "My Spirit shall not always strive." You may in future pass through revival after revival and remain untouched.

It is unwise, useless, sinful and dangerous to hesitate; then decide immediately.

Several persons stayed in for the after meeting last night.

There will be preaching again this evening at 3 o'clock and 7:30.

The Gate City Band went out to proximity last night and serenaded Mr. Caesar Cone, who gave them an impromptu speech, which was greatly enjoyed by the boys.

The recruiting office shipped three new recruits to New York for service in Porto Rico. Cleo F. Flynn, of Winston, enlisted here today for cavalry service in the Philippines.

The University of North Carolina football team passed here the morning returning home from Princeton, where they played the Princeton team yesterday and were defeated by a score of 30 to 0.

The street force is doing some very necessary work in the way of repairing the macadam on Fayetteville street; also putting the streets in South Greensboro in order for the winter, using the road machine freely.

Benjamin N. Gaot and Miss Ada M. Boon, both of Burlington, were united in marriage in this city at 3 o'clock yesterday evening at the home of A. Crutchfield, on West Lee street, Rev. Livingston Johnson officiating.

Rev. Chas. Richwinder, a colored preacher, was arraigned before Squire Pritchett this afternoon on the charge of unmercifully beating his two daughters. After hearing the evidence the justice dismissed the case at cost of the daughers.

Squire Eckel tried J. A. Mabie, white, this morning for wife beating and fined him $5 and costs. Mabie was also tried for making an assault with a pistol upon C. W. Myers and John Collins and bound over to court in a bond of $100.

In order that all may be accommodated, books will leave Cage's Hotel, and a train leaves for the State square at 2 o'clock, p. m. sharp, on Monday, 13th inst., for the land sale in the Van Buren property. The most deplorable property around the city, will be sold at your price. Don't fail to be present in the sale at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Fred Mauney, of Salisbury, and Miss Annie Staples, of Reidsville, were united in marriage in the Methodist church at Reidsville at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and left on No. 36 in the afternoon for a bridal trip to New York and other northern cities. A high noon breakfast was furnished to the couple in the hotel before the train at 12 o'clock.

THE JAIL QUESTION.

Was Settled by the County Commissioners Today.

The county commissioners met in called session at the court house today to discuss plans and specifications of Guilford's new jail.

After much deliberation they practically decided to accept the plans offered by Hayden, Wheeler & Schwend, architects of Charlotte, though no official statement has yet been made.

Mr. Wheeler, of this firm, met with the commissioners and fully explained the design to them.

The building will be a two-story brick structure, and will be erected at corner of Gaston and Greene streets, fronting on the latter thoroughfare.

There will be sixteen cells which can accommodate sixty-four prisoners. The building will be so arranged that the number of cells can be increased to twenty-eight, making room for 112 prisoners.

The largest number of prisoners ever confined in Gilford jail at one time is forty-eight.

On the first floor there is to be a bed-room, dining-room and kitchen, and three bed-rooms upstairs for the jailor's family.

The structure will be convenient and secure, and work will begin on the building in a few weeks.

The board will advertise at once for bids for its construction.

WILD TURKEY DINNER.

The telegram man would like so much to say a lot of nice things about the good dinner he ate today at the McAdoo's. The bill of fare was complete, including wild turkey. It was thoroughly enjoyed and we would like to do the subject justice in this item, but it is too soon after dinner and we are too full for utterance. Hence we get off with a short speech, thanks to Mr. Perkins.

A Eminent Divine.

Dr. Egbert W. Smith, pastor of First Presbyterian church of this city, turned off the Atlanta Constitution with its last Sunday sermon. The Constitution also published a picture of Dr. Smith. He is one of the most able divines in the state, and the congregation is to be congratulated upon securing him to furnish its Sunday sermons.

Should be Appreciated.

The Lynchburg News is authority for the statement that the Southern Railroad has reduced the freight on leaf tobacco from Danville to Durham, the reduction having gone into effect the first of the present month. The old rate was 21 cents, the new 18 cents, or 3 cents less. As the general tendency of prices are upward this voluntary reduction by the Southern should be appreciated by tobacconists and farmers.

Washington, Nov. 8—Senator Pritchett will leave here for Richmond tomorrow to appear as counsel in the Asheville bank cases. He expects to return to North Carolina by next week.

MYERS-DOUGLAS NUPTIALS.

A Brilliant Social Affair Last Night at the Douglas Home.

The marriage of Miss Madeline Douglas to Mr. Edward Warren Myers last night was notable, owing to the social prominence and the personal popularity of both the bride and groom.

The bride is the only daughter of Associate Justice and Mrs. R. M. Douglas, and is a granddaughter of the famous Stephen A. Douglas and of the late lamented Judge Robt P. Dick, of Greensboro; while Mr. Myers is a grandson of Judge W. J. Warren, an able North Carolina jurist, and is, through Judge Warren, a Mayflower descendant and a Warren of Massachusetts.

As the bride was in mourning the wedding was a quiet home affair; witnessed only by the immediate relatives and intimate friends of the young couple.

Promptly at 9 o'clock Mrs. Nelle Miller began Mendelsohn's wedding march and the bride, followed by the groom with his best man, Mr. M. C. Elliott, of Wilmington, entered the parlor. Immediately afterwards the bride came into the room with her maid of honor, Miss Olivia Myers, a sister of the groom. Then the impressive Catholic ceremony was said by the Right Reverend Charles H. Mohr, president of St. Leo College, St. Leo, Fla., and who is an old friend of the bride's family, and was formerly the Catholic pastor in this city.

The bride was exquisitely dressed in white satin, brocaded with carnations and carried white carnations and maiden's hair ferns. Miss Myers, the maid of honor, was attired in pink silk and carried pink roses and ferns.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a very elegant supper was served at a number of small tables, under the personal supervision of A. Dughi, of Raleigh. The bride's table was decorated in pink. Before the supper was ended Mr. and Mrs. Myers left the house and took the train for the north.

The presents were numerous and costly; among them being a handsome silver bowl, given by Ex-Postmaster General John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia.

Judge Douglas' home was tastefully beautified for the occasion—the halls, parlor and the dining room containing a gracefully arranged profusion of chrysanthemums, cedar, evergreens, arbor vitas and smilax.

After a fortnight's stay in northern cities Mr. and Mrs. Myers will return to Chapel Hill, where Mr. Myers has position in the national geological survey.
